

Nominating & Governance Committee Charter

TARGA RESOURCES CORP. CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING & GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS (Adopted as of December 1, 2010)

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Targa Resources Corp. (the "Company") has established the Nominating & Governance Committee of the Board (the "Committee") with authority, responsibility and specific duties as described in this Nominating & Governance Committee Charter (the "Charter").

I. Purposes

The purposes of the Committee are to:

- A. Advise the Board and make recommendations regarding appropriate corporate governance practices and assist the Board in implementing those practices;
- B. Assist the Board by identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with the criteria approved of by the Board, and recommending director nominees to the Board for election at the annual meetings of stockholders or for appointment to fill vacancies on the Board;
- C. Advise the Board about the appropriate composition of the Board and its committees;
- D. Lead the Board in the annual performance evaluation of the Board and its committees, and of management;
- E. Direct all matters relating to the succession of the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"); and
- F. Perform such other functions as the Board may assign to the Committee from time to time.

II. Membership

The Committee shall consist of not less than three members of the Board. If required by the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), each member of the Committee shall be "independent" as defined by the listing requirements of the NYSE. Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements, no action of the Committee shall be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

The members of the Committee and its Chairman shall be selected by the Board and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee shall be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If a Chairman is not designated by the Board or present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chairman by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee shall have authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Authority

The Committee shall have the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.
2. Retain and determine funding for independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors, including the sole authority to retain, approve the fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any search firm to assist the Committee in identifying director candidates, as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular outside legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee; and (b) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

3. Delegate to its Chairman, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances. However, subcommittees shall not have the authority to engage independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors unless expressly granted such authority by the Committee. Each subcommittee shall keep minutes and regularly report to the Committee.

B. Responsibilities

The Committee shall have the following responsibilities:

Corporate Governance

1. The Committee shall consider any corporate governance issues that arise from time to time and develop appropriate recommendations or guidelines, as appropriate, for the Board.
2. The Committee shall periodically review and reassess the adequacy of the Company's corporate governance guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

Director Nominations

Except where the Company is legally required by contract or otherwise to provide third parties with the ability to nominate directors, the Committee shall perform the following actions:

1. Identify individuals qualified to become Board members and recommend to the Board the persons to be nominated by the Board for election as directors at the annual meeting of stockholders, and the persons to be elected by the Board to fill any vacancies on the Board.
2. Prior to recommending to the Board that an existing director be nominated for election as a director at the annual meeting of stockholders, the Committee shall consider and review the director's:
 - Past Board performance;
 - Length of Board service;
 - Personal and professional integrity, including commitment to the Company's core values;
 - Experience, skills and contributions that the existing director brings to the Board;
 - Service on boards of directors of other companies;
 - The overall variety and mix of experience, skills, attributes and viewpoints of the Board, taken as a whole; and
 - Independence under applicable standards.
3. In the event that a vacancy on the Board arises, the Committee shall seek and identify a qualified director nominee to be recommended to the Board for either appointment by the Board to serve the remainder of the term of the director position that is vacant or election at the next annual meeting of stockholders. To identify such a nominee, the Committee should solicit recommendations from existing directors and senior management. These recommendations should be considered by the Committee along with any recommendations that have been received from stockholders as discussed below. The Committee may, in its discretion, retain a search firm to provide additional candidates. Prior to recommending to the Board that a person be elected to fill a vacancy on the Board, the Committee shall consider and review the candidate's:
 - Relevant skills and experience;
 - Independence under applicable standards;
 - Business judgment;
 - Service on boards of directors of other companies;
 - Personal and professional integrity, including commitment to the Company's core values;
 - Openness and ability to work as part of a team;
 - The overall variety and mix of experience, skills, attributes and viewpoints of the Board, taken as a whole;
 - Willingness to commit the required time to serve as a Board member; and
 - Familiarity with the Company and its industry.

The Committee also shall consider the diversity of, and the optimal enhancement of the current mix of talent and experience on, the Board.

4. The Committee shall treat recommendations for directors that are received from the Company's stockholders equally with recommendations received from any other source; provided, however, that in order for such stockholder recommendations to be considered, the recommendations must comply with the procedures outlined in the Company's proxy statement for its annual meeting of stockholders.

Board and Committee Structure

The Committee shall periodically:

1. Review the advisability or need for any changes in the number and composition of the Board;
2. Review the advisability or need for any changes in the Board's committee structure; and
3. Recommend to the Board the composition of each Board committee and the individual director to serve as Chairman of each committee.

Committee, Board and Management Performance Evaluations

Each year, the Committee shall:

1. Request that the Chairman of each committee report to the full Board about the committee's annual evaluation of its performance; and
2. Receive comments from all directors and report to the full Board with an assessment of the performance of the Board, the Board's committees and management.

Succession Planning

Each year, the Committee shall:

1. Meet on succession planning, whereby the Committee shall identify, and periodically update, the qualities and characteristics necessary for an effective CEO and monitor and review the development and progression of potential candidates against these standards; and
2. Consult with the CEO on senior management succession planning.

IV. Procedures

- A. Meetings. The Committee shall meet at the call of its Chairman, two or more members of the Committee or the Chairman of the Board. The Committee shall meet as frequently as circumstances dictate. Meetings of the Committee may be in person, by conference call or by unanimous written consent, in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Meetings of the Committee shall be held at such time and place, and upon such notice, as its Chairman may from time to time determine. The Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it deems appropriate.

Meetings may, at the discretion of the Committee, include non-independent directors, members of the Company's management, independent advisors and consultants or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate.

- B. Quorum and Approval. A majority of the Committee's members shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall act on the affirmative vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting.
- C. Rules. The Committee may determine additional rules and procedures, including designation of a Chair pro tempore in the absence of its Chairman and designation of a secretary of the Committee at any meeting thereof.
- D. Reports. The Committee shall maintain minutes of its meetings and make regular oral or written reports to the Board, directly or through its Chairman, of its actions and any recommendations to the Board.
- E. Review of Charter. Each year, the Committee shall review the need for changes in this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- F. Performance Review. Each year, the Committee shall review and evaluate its own performance.
- G. Reimbursement of Expenses. Committee members, including the Chairman, will be reimbursed by the Company for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with their duties as Committee members.

V. Posting Requirement

The Company shall post this Charter on the Company's website as required by applicable rules and regulations. In addition, the Company shall disclose in its proxy statement for its annual meeting of stockholders that a copy of this Charter is available on the Company's website.

* * *

While the Committee members have the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Charter, nothing contained in this Charter is intended to create, or should be construed as creating, any responsibility or liability of the Committee members, except to the extent otherwise provided under applicable federal or state law.
